What songs or lyrics about Jesus resonate most profoundly in your heart?

Read Colossians 1:15-20. Most scholars believe this passage is part of an ancient hymn sung by followers of Jesus. The hymn could go back to the very earliest years of the church. As a group, create a list of the characteristics we can learn about Jesus through this text.

Explore each point together. What does it mean? What does it mean to you? What item on that list most captures your attention this week? Why?

The early followers of Jesus devoted great time and attention to continually clarifying who Jesus is. Who do you say Jesus is?

What practices, truths, relationships etc. help keep your focus on Jesus?

Pray together. Close by reading Colossians 1:15-20 from the Message:

We look at this Son and see the God who cannot be seen. We look at this Son and see God's original purpose in everything created. For everything, absolutely everything, above and below, visible and invisible, rank after rank after rank of angels—everything got started in him and finds its purpose in him. He was there before any of it came into existence and holds it all together right up to this moment. And when it comes to the church, he organizes and holds it together, like a head does a body.¹⁸⁻²⁰ He was supreme in the beginning and—leading the resurrection parade—he is supreme in the end. From beginning to end he's there, towering far above everything, everyone. So spacious is he, so roomy, that everything of God finds its proper place in him without crowding. Not only that, but all the broken and dislocated pieces of the universe—people and things, animals and atoms—get properly fixed and fit together in vibrant harmonies, all because of his death, his blood that poured down from the cross.
