

YOU'LL GET THROUGH THIS: THE HEART OF RECONCILIATION

Life Group Questions | Sunday, June 28, 2020

What is your favorite family drama tv show?

Read Genesis 42:1-21. As you read, use your senses to imagine the story. Talk about the various characters and their emotions/reactions. What details stand out to you? What do you think the narrator was trying to communicate?

Read Ephesians 4:26-27. When we hold on to bitterness and hate, the person we hurt most is ourselves. How do you see this scheme of the enemy playing out in your own life?

Read Colossians 1:19-20. Reconciliation is at the heart of who God is. Reconciliation is a process, both internally and relationally. Do you have a story to share about reconciliation (or lack thereof) from your life?

Discuss the following elements of reconciliation. What's challenging? What gets in the way of being reconciled?

- Address the hurts we've experienced
- Recognize how we've hurt others
- Offer and accept forgiveness

Close in prayer. Begin with 2-3 minutes of silent reflection. Ask God help you identify where reconciliation may be needed in your life. Ask God to help you see and take your next most faithful step.
