

BOUNDARIES

Life Group Questions for Sunday, May 14, 2017

What did you do in the sunshine this week?

Do you have a story to tell about saying "yes" when you should have said "no"?

How would you define a good boundary line in a relationship?

Read Proverbs 4:20-27

What boundary lines do these verses call us to?

- verse 24?
- verse 25?
- verses 26-27?

What choices do you make that help you "Guard your heart?"

How do we know when to say "yes" and when to say "no" in our relationships?

- Is this something they can provide for themselves?
- Do I have the resources?
- How am I feeling? How is my heart?
- What is the fruit?

Discuss the tension between sacrificing our lives as servants of Jesus and these boundary lines.

Talk about these reasons we don't set healthy boundaries:

- Fear of losing a relationship
- Fear of conflict
- Fear of guilt

Pray for each other to set good boundaries with EMPATHY, LISTENING carefully to resolve CONFLICT by speaking the truth in love.
