

CARPE DIEM

Life Group Questions | Sunday, December 31, 2017

What is your favorite Robin William's movie?

Have one person in your group read Psalm 90 aloud.

What main ideas and themes do you see?

What does this passage say about God? What descriptions are used? What thoughts or emotions do these descriptions evoke in you?

Have a different person in your group read Psalm 90 aloud.

What does this passage say about humans? What descriptions are used? What thoughts or emotions do these descriptions evoke in you?

This text invites us to live our life with a proper perspective. What is one way you want to partner with God's Spirit to live more intentionally this year?

Pray for one another. Begin by reading Psalm 90:12—

*Teach us to number our days,
that we may gain a heart of wisdom.*